About Tin Leg

Tin Leg is a travel insurance brand of Squaremouth, Inc., an award-winning marketplace serving customers across the United States. Our number one goal is saving our customers money, which means we guarantee an honest interaction with every customer and will never push a sale if we know a traveler's concerns can't be covered. It's a simple promise, but one we take seriously every time.

Revolutionary Claims Process

We know the true test of an insurance company is their claims process. We've turned the traditional process inside-out with early and frequent communication at every stage. We speak to every claimant upfront before requesting any documentation, and maintaining a touchpoint every 7 days so they're never left wondering about the status of their claim.

On average, we process claims in 15 days, with a 92% approval rate.

24-Hour Emergency Assistance

Tin Leg's emergency assistance team is available worldwide, 24 hours a day to help you navigate a wide range of situations while traveling.

24/7 Medical Assistance: We can help you locate medical care, coordinate emergency evacuations, arrange medical transportation home after treatment, and make arrangements to return home or repatriate remains if necessary.

24/7 Travel Assistance: We can provide embassy contact information, interpreter referrals, help with lost or stolen travel documents, legal assistance contacts, and local travel and medical advisories.
